

MOOSE LAKE COMPANIES, INC.'S ACQUISITION OF BAE SYSTEMS UNMANNED AIRCRAFT PROGRAMS INC./
SENSINTEL INC.

Effective immediately, BAE Systems Unmanned Aircraft Programs Inc. (BAE UAP), will now operate under the name of Sensintel Inc. as the result of an acquisition. Sensintel is a wholly owned subsidiary of Moose Lake Companies Inc. (Moose Lake.) Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments to reflect this change, the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Defense Trade Controls, Bureau of Political Military Affairs is exercising the authority under 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for amendments to change currently approved authorizations.

All currently approved DSP authorizations identifying BAE UAP will not require an amendment to reflect the change to Moose Lake/Sensintel. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the currently approved license by the license holder.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying BAE UAP on the license will be adjudicated without prejudice. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the approved license by the license holder.

New license applications received after November 30, 2013, identifying BAE UAP on the license may be returned without action for correction.

A copy of this website notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs & Border Protection at time of shipment.

All currently approved agreements held by a third-party will require an amendment to be executed to reflect this acquisition. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending their agreement. The executed amendment will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such.

Pending agreement applications identifying BAE UAP will be adjudicated without prejudice. With the filing of the executed agreement, the agreement holder must attach a copy of this web notice as explanation for the acquisition in the executed agreement.
