

ELECTRICAL POWER SYSTEMS
(A DIVISION OF GOODRICH CORPORATION)
CHANGES NAME TO SAFRAN POWER USA, LLC

Effective immediately, Electrical Power Systems, a division of Goodrich Corporation will change its name as follows: Safran Power USA, LLC. Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments to reflect this change, the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Defense Trade Controls, Bureau of Political Military Affairs of DDTC is exercising the authority under 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for formal amendments to change currently approved authorizations.

All currently approved DSP authorizations identifying Electrical Power Systems will not require an amendment to reflect the change to Safran Power USA, LLC. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the currently approved license by the license holder.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying Electrical Power Systems as a party to the license on the license will be adjudicated without prejudice. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the approved license by the license holder.

New license applications received after May 31, 2013, identifying Electrical Power Systems as a party to the license on the license may be returned without action for correction.

A copy of this website notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs & Border Protection at time of shipment.

All currently approved agreements held by a third-party will require an amendment to be executed to reflect this name change. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending their agreement. The executed amendment will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such.

Pending agreement applications identifying Electrical Power Systems will be adjudicated without prejudice. With the filing of the executed agreement, the agreement holder must attach a copy of this web notice as explanation for the name change in the executed agreement.
